1. Strategy
   Making Predictions
   Focus: How do you think Norman helps the signmaker?

2. Strategy
   Monitor and Fix Up
   Focus: What has Norman always wanted to do?

3. Lit. Elements
   Character
   Focus: What kind of person do you think Norman is? Why?

Respond:

___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________

___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________

___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________

___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________
___________________

Skill: Realism and Fantasy
Focus: So far, which things could really happen and which could not?

Respond:

Skill: Inferring
Focus: What did Norman learn by the end of the story?

Respond:

Title: The Signmaker's Assistant
Author: Tedd Arnold

Name: ______________________
Date: ________________